ABORTION

Law, man's law v. God's Law, conflict between God's Law and the law of the government, balance of short term inconvenience versus loss of length of years of life, whose body is it, ability vs. right, elderly, suicide, value of life, value of human (Biblical examples, Herod, Salome, Saint John the Baptist, Forerunner, abortion, judicial decisions, pro-life, Louisiana, court, Kansas, roman Catholic Judge, need vs. loss), v1n7p3

USA Freedom of Choice Act in Congress; Ireland lifts ban on abortions v2n3p3

Drug actually "starves" the cells lining the	womb in early pregnancy making it lethal to the baby, pregnancy is not an illness, V2N11P7 CALIFORNIA PROPOSITION 161 would require physicians assist those who wish to kill themselves, and inform them that the physician must help them kill themselves even if the patient is not contemplating suicide, effect on religiously operated hospitals, similarity to contraceptives leading to legalized abortion is inescapable V2N11P4 AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION ADVOCATES COLD BLOODED MURDER, PROMOTES HOMOSEXUAL AND LESBIAN BAR ASSOCIATIONS, in annual meeting of August, 1992, approved unrestricted abortion as a right without regard to rights of child, lawyers generally have difficulty perceiving beyond the law, in most legal minds morality has no place, lawyers disregard their moral obligations, many lawyers resign from the ABA because of its pro abortion on demand stance, ABA uses fees from pro life lawyers to promote abortion, v2n12p4 Remember the Dead: This year we urge you to remember those babies who have been killed in abortion, for while many of us think of them as martyrs for Our Lord, we also know they have died without the Sacrament of Baptism, and may need our prayers to assist them in what ever it is Our Lord may request of them. v10n4 How Precious Is Each Child: It is impossible to comprehend the vast number, the un-believable percentage, of people who chose to be slaves of sin through killing of babies and offering their broken bodies on Satan's altar. Instead of seeking to feed and comfort them, as Our Lord did the multitude who had followed Him into the countryside, these slaves of the temporary existence commit the most horrible deed possible. They torture little babies to death. v11n3 Pro-Abortion Groups Fight Unborn Victims Of Violence Act: The bill, (HR 2436), would establish, for purposes of federal criminal law, that unborn children	are human beings who can be the victims of federal crimes over and above any harm done to their mothers v10n3 Abortion - Tax Paid or Insurance Paid, is there a difference: If we oppose Medicaid paid abortions because it uses our tax money for purposes we consider immoral, should not the use of insurance premiums for insurance company paid abortions also be opposed? Does this impose upon us a new duty, that of ascertaining whether or not our health insurance company (if we are fortunate enough to have health insurance) pays for abortions? It appears the obligation is imposed. v4n1p6 Respect For Life: Mother Theresa is right. If a child does not have its life respected by the mother who is carrying it, then how can we expect society at large to have any respect for any life. The warnings were made in the late fifties and early sixties. Artificial birth control would lead to abortions, and abortions would lead to assisted suicides, and now we warn, assisted suicide will lead to the government or its designee deciding who will live and who will die. On birth control - I told you so. On Abortions - I told you so. On suicide - I told you so. v4n1p6 Is There A Difference, comparisons between acknowledged sinful conduct and what is perceived to be ordinary conduct: s there a difference between saying you can not impose your morality on someone else, and therefore you do not have the right to protect unborn life by prohibiting abortions, and actually assisting someone to have an abortion, or forcing someone to have an abortion, or forcing people to assist in the payment of someone else having an abortion? v4n1p6 Remember the Dead: This year we urge you to remember those babies who have been killed in abortion, for while many of us think of them as martyrs for Our Lord, we also know they have died without the Sacrament of Baptism, and may need our prayers to assist them in

AUGUST 11, 2001 RADIO ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT BUSH REGARDING STEM CELL RESEARCH, v11n9p1

FOLLOWED BY OUR RESPONSE, Using these murdered babies stem cells is like committing cannibalism - which is never acceptable. But this situation is even worse because the "cannibalism" is being committed even though there is other food available. v11n9p3

Seeking Knowledge Versus Presumption: In order to teach, a Priest must first learn, and he can only learn through study; common, hard work, study. The laity are obligated to learn, with their primary teachers being the Priests, for since God has ordered His Priests to teach everyone, then everyone is obligated to learn that which the Priests teach. Two of the many things which follow from the foregoing simple application of logic are very important, for they apply to both Priests and laity. First: Intuitive so called "knowledge", and the form of so called "knowledge" obtained by osmosis, and lack of knowledge through avoidance of study, and plain and simple ignorance, are all the same, and are all impermissible when the subject matter is God and what God wants. Second: Only those with Apostolic Succession have the Divinely appointed authority and Divinely appointed right to teach. v10n4

Purgatory and Prostitutes: We must become sin with Christ so that in His death in which sin died, sin will also die in us - it is not that we become sinful, but that sin, which died with Christ, becomes dead for us. Very few of us will attain that state of Holiness in this life. So, since that state of life is attained through study, learning, practice, fasting and suffering in this life, it will be attained by something similar in the next life, only that process in the next life will be under the direct control of God in His Justice. That is why Saint Peter wrote, But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little, will himself perfect you and confirm you and establish you. (1 Peter 5:10). Saint Peter is referring to

Purgatory, not to suffering in this life. It will not be pleasant, but it will be better than Hell. v10n4

Sin Corrupts Man and All of Nature: The effects of sin are far beyond the harm to the sinner and those against whom the sin is directly made. Sin harms all of creation, and it is reasonable to believe that except for a handful of persons such as The Blessed Ever Virgin Mary, Saint John the Baptist, Elias, Elija, Our Lord - except for some very few, all humans who attain the age of reason sin. Even Saint Peter was a sinful man and confessed being such to Our Lord. As an ancillary note: It is interesting to note that Our Lord did not tell Saint Peter that Saint Peter would cease being a sinful man. What Our Lord told Saint Peter was, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men. One who refuses to acknowledge his sinfulness can not be a servant of Our Lord v10n4

Our Task And Our Struggle (constant spiritual exercise is the only means of obtaining spiritual strength) Our Lord Jesus Christ once gave a man this task: to push against a giant boulder every day. That is all Our Lord told the man, "I want you to push against this boulder all of the work day, every day." v10n4 observe, think, and do, we must have a concept of God, and of Divine Love, for without these we live without Hope; without these there is no reason to seek to become good and to oppose evil. Seeking good and opposing evil for the sake of mankind is a hollow pursuit, for geology, archaeology, and the sciences tell the Godless that the human race will one day become extinct, as did the dinosaurs and other "rulers of the Earth". v10n4

There is No (Moral) Middle Ground: There are many who advocate finding the middle ground between strict, blind adherence to the law, and the libertine; between the non-thinkers and the free thinkers; between the strict constructionists and the anarchist.

However, God's Truth does not change. God's Law does not change. Dogma, the revealed truth of God, does not change, unless, of course, your god is you, or mankind, or mankind's ungodly desires - but then it is your dogma and not God's Dogma to which you make reference, and it is God's Dogma to which we make reference. v10n3

Letter versus Spirit of the Law: A really good example of spirit of the law versus letter of the law is President Clinton's sexual escapade with Monica Lewinski. Unfortunately, there is no delicate way of stating this. President Clinton said he did not have sex with the woman. According to the definition of sexual intercourse he did not have sexual intercourse, but he did engage in the most extreme of sexual activities with her. Therefore, according to the letter of the law defining sexual intercourse he did not have sexual intercourse, but he did have sex with her because their sexual activities were everything short of intercourse and their activities did result in orgasm. In his twisted mind Clinton equated sex with sexual intercourse v10n3

The Blessing Of Hope For Our Generation of God: There are some situations which leave only two possibilities. A good example is, if you ask someone, "Is the light in the shed on?" and they truthfully answer no, then you know the shed should be dark. If they answer, "Yes," then there should be light in the shed. What about when the light is burned out? Well, then the light is not on, so it is dark in the shed. v10n3

Twice Dream: There was a pleasant feeling in the air as I mixed with the small groups of people walking and talking somewhat aimlessly about. Then a man walked up to me and said, "Be careful, especially around the trees, and look at anyone who approaches you." "Why?", I asked, "Is there something wrong?" "You can not tell them from us except in the later stages," he replied, and then he moved away and I lost sight of him in the darkness just feet away from where he had been standing. Some people were flying as though floating, but with apparently little or no ability to control where v10n3

The Cross Bearer (on suffering): St. Theophan the Recluse (Russian, 1800's) wrote, "One can not go after the Lord, the Cross Bearer, without a cross." All who follow the Lord, without exception, carry a cross. Where there is no cross, there is no Christian. Where there is a Christian, there also is one carrying a cross. v4n1p7

Has Sunday Ben Murdered:

Religious Argument, Keeping the Lord's day Holy has a long tradition of being a day of and for prayer, and a day of rest for the worker, as well as many other aspects. What is the tradition of the vast majority of society, today, in keeping the Lord's day Holy? Just twenty years ago it was virtually unheard of in most parts of the USA, for most businesses to be open on Sunday. v4n1p1

Secular Argument, Next thing you know, they'll be saying real estate agents should not show houses on Sunday, because that is working. Sundays were made for man, not as something which was to bind him but as a day during which he could do what he pleased. And of course, FOOTBALL v4n1p1

Comment, Of course Sunday has not been murdered. Secular forces are very strongly attempting to remove observance of Sunday as a Holy Day, a day set apart for God and man, just as the French Revolution attempted to kill religion by going to a ten day week, thus attempting to obliterate the Lord's Day. There are serious considerations we must make in reviewing our conduct on Sunday. v4n1p2
